Money Matters Last Sunday £663.79 was given at the Offertory, and a further £108.81 was given to CAFOD. This Sunday is being kept as Education Sunday, and there will be a retiring collection for Catholic Education Services.

Congratulations to Brian Evans, celebrating his ninetieth birthday today. He will receive a special Blessing at the end of the 6.0pm Mass, after which his daughter Barbara invites us all to go into the Hall for refreshments.

Helen Gorham RIP We heard with sadness of the death last Thursday of Helen Gorham, who was greatly loved and respected. She was a person of deep faith, with a special love of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Sacrament ; she did sterling work for CAFOD in the parish here. She received the Last Rites a few hours before her death. The funeral Mass is most likely to be on Tuesday, October 4th. The time should be in next week's Newsheet.

Please come along to this event - bring your family and friends. All Welcome. We look forward to seeing you and your support will be greatly appreciated. Organised by Team Felix on behalf of the parish.'

PROCLAIM! I'm so sorry that I simply forgot to advertise the Proclaim! meeting which took place a week yesterday - the first Saturday in September. As a consequence several members of the Team were absent. I had advertised it here straight after the August meeting, but I should have given you a reminder for the September one. Sorry. The first Saturday in October occurs on the day following my return from my summer holiday, October 1st, and so I wonder whether we could transfer the meeting to the next Saturday, October 8th, please? What is the Proclaim! Team? - A group of parishioners who are eager to bring other people to know and love God, and who meet together to plan strategies for doing this. Why don't you join us? 11.30am-12.30pm on October 8th, in the Hall.

Mass for the Sick The next Mass for the Sick is due to take place on Tuesday, October 11th, at 3.0pm This Mass is offered for all sick and infirm people, and the Sacrament for the Sick - the Anointing of the Sick - is administered. We have these Masses twice a year, and they are followed by a very nice tea in the Hall.

When the last Mass for the Sick was held, I felt sorry that so few people took part in it. I thought that many more elderly and infirm people would have benefitted from it, and would have found it helpful and enjoyable. Not least as a chance to get out and spend some time with other people. But it does depend upon others being prepared to invite them to come, and being ready to provide or arrange transport for them.

Maybe YOU know someone who is sick or infirm, and would like to be invited. Please will you do so? I think that this is an important area of that outreach which Proclaim! is seeking to promote.....

Wanted In my previous parish we had a wheel chair, and found it very useful. There doesn't seem to be one here. Has anyone got an unused chair which we could beg, buy, or borrow, please?
