THE SACRED TRIDUUM

We are fast approaching the Sacred Triduum, that holy time which stretches from the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Maundy Thursday to the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday : those three momentous days in which we remember - and more than remember, enter into - the events by which our reconciliation with God the Father, and our freedom to enter into eternal life, has been accomplished. It is a time unique in the Churches Year, a time when we should lay aside our normal concerns and occupations, and give ourselves as fully as we can to being with Our Lord, and contemplating what it is that He has done for us. We do this through the solemn Liturgies of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday - supported by various optional services and devotions.

The first of these solemn liturgies is the Mass of the Lord's Supper (8.0pm, Thursday) What a privilege it is to recall together, and indeed more than merely recall - to be present, as Jesus washes his disciples feet, gives his New Commandment, and gives to his Church the Mass and the Holy Sacrament by which he will be close to us always! And then to watch with him in Gethsemane, made real for us by the Altar of Repose on which He is present in the Holy Sacrament.

On Good Friday, as the Solemn Liturgy of Good Friday (3.0pm, Friday) is celebrated, the Passion of the Lord, his sufferings and death on the Cross, are vividly brought before us as we listen to St.John's account of the Passion, see the Cross unveiled, and come to offer our adoration. It is a deeply moving act of worship, and brings home to us both the horrors which Jesus endured, and the wondrous depths of his love for us.

The trilogy is completed by the joyful Easter Vigil & First Mass of Easter on Holy Saturday (8.30pm, Saturday), when, as darkness falls, we begin to celebrate the Resurrection. We see the new fire from which the big Easter candle is lit - that moment as the lifeless wick of the candle jumps into life symbolizing the rising of the Lord. We hear the praises of the Candle - which represents Our Lord himself - sung, and we witness the waters of the Font being blessed - the waters by which we were re-born in Baptism. And we receive in Holy Communion the risen Christ himself, giving Himself to us anew.

Once more I urge you to enter fully into this drama which is played out year by year in churches throughout Christendom. How can we sit at home when these great Services, Liturgies, are being enacted? Do be present - not just try to be present - on Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, and encounter afresh the Christ who died and rose for you.
